Parental Complaint Policy

Introduction

Archbishop Courtenay Primary School recognises the importance of parental and pupil feedback. Our approach to complaints or concerns is to try and deal with them at the earliest possible opportunity. Complaints are a valuable way for ensuring that we can improve our systems and we value every opportunity that we have to improve.

We also recognise however that complaints are not just a way of appeasing individuals and so each complaint will be approached on a case-by-case basis. The focus will always be on attempting to address any areas of approach or policy that have not been followed correctly or have fallen short of their intended outcomes.

Our approach is to attempt to deal with any concerns at the earliest opportunity and so this policy offers a tiered approach to complaint management.

The First Contact Stage 1: Resolving concerns informally

1.1. Parents are always welcome to discuss any concerns with the appropriate member of staff, who will try to clarify with the parent the nature of the concern and reassure them that the academy wants to hear about it. Parents should be advised from the outset that there is a complaints procedure to follow if the matter cannot be resolved informally. The member of staff may explain to the parent how the situation happened. It can be helpful at this point to identify what sort of outcome the parent is looking for.

1.2. If the member of staff first contacted cannot immediately deal with the matter, s/he will make a clear note of the date, name and contact address or phone number.

1.3. All members of staff will know how to refer, if necessary, to the person with responsibility for the particular issue raised by the parent. S/he will check later to make sure the referral has been dealt with.

1.4. If the matter is brought to the attention of the Headteacher s/he may decide to deal with the complaint. If the complaint is against the Headteacher the parent will be advised to contact the Chair of the Local Governing Body.

1.5. The member of staff dealing with the concern will make sure the parent is clear what action (if any) or monitoring of the situation has been agreed, putting it in writing if appropriate.

Stage 2: Investigation

2.1 Complaints at this stage need to be recorded in writing. A complainant may wish to write in himself or herself. Complainants may also make their complaint verbally and can request help to put their complaint in writing.

2.2 The Headteacher (or designated person) will acknowledge the complaint in writing within three working days of receiving the written complaint. The acknowledgement will give a brief explanation of the school's complaints procedure and a target date for providing a response to the complaint. This should normally be within ten working days. If this proves impossible, a letter will be sent explaining the reason for the delay and giving a revised target date. This will be within a maximum of 20 working days unless it is a particularly complex issue.

2.2 The Headteacher will provide an opportunity for the complainant to meet them to supplement any information provided previously or to record the complaint in writing if it has been made verbally. It will be made clear to the complainant that if s/he wishes s/he might be accompanied to any meeting by a friend, relative, representative or advocate who can speak on his/her behalf or to provide support.

2.3 If necessary the Headteacher will interview other parties and take statements from those involved. If the complaint centres on a pupil, the pupil should also be interviewed unless this is judged not to be in the interests of the pupil's welfare. Pupils should normally be interviewed with parents/carers present, but if this would seriously delay the investigation of a serious/urgent complaint or if the pupil has specifically said that s/he would prefer that parents/carers were not involved, another member of staff with whom the pupil feels comfortable should be present. If a member of staff is complained against, they must have the opportunity to present their case.

2.4 The Headteacher will keep written records of meetings, telephone conversations and other documentation.

2.5 Once all the relevant facts have been established as far as possible, the Headteacher will then produce a written response to the complainant, including a full explanation of the decision and the reasons for it. Where appropriate, this will include what action the school will take to resolve the complaint. The complainant will be advised that should s/he wish to take the complaint further s/he should notify the Chair of the Local Governing Body within 20 working days of receiving the letter.

2.6 If the complaint is against the Headteacher, or if the Headteacher has been closely involved in the issue, the Chair of the Local Governing Body will carry out all the Stage 1 procedures.

Stage 3: Review by a Complaints Panel

3.1 The Chair of the Governing Body will write to the complainant to acknowledge receipt of the written request for the governing body to review the complaint. The acknowledgement will inform the complainant that three members of the school's governing body will hear the complaint within 20 working days of receiving the complaint. The letter will also explain that the complainant has the right to submit any further documents relevant to the complaint. These must be received in time for the documents to be sent to the three members.

3.2 A meeting of the Governors' Complaints Panel will be convened. No governors with prior involvement in the issues complained about will be included on the panel and it may be necessary to use reserves (previously agreed by the Governing Body) to ensure the Panel can meet within the set time. Governors should bear in mind the advantages of having a parent governor on the panel, and will also be sensitive to issues of race and gender. The Headteacher will not sit on the Panel. An experienced governor will chair the panel meeting.

3.3 The Chair of the panel will ensure the Panel hears the complaint within twenty working days of receiving the letter. All relevant correspondence relating to the complaint will be given to each Panel member as soon as the composition of the panel is confirmed. If the correspondence is extensive, the Chair may prepare a thorough summary for sending to Panel members.

3.4 The Chair or clerk will write and inform the complainant, Headteacher, any relevant witnesses and members of the Panel at least five working days in advance of the date, time and place of the meeting. The notification will also inform the complainant of his/her right to be accompanied to the meeting by a friend/advocate/interpreter and explain how the meeting will be conducted and the complainant's right to submit further written evidence to the Panel.

3.5 The Headteacher will be invited to attend the Panel meeting and will be asked to prepare a written report for the Panel in response to the complaint. All attendees including the complainant should receive a set of the relevant documents including the Headteacher's report and the agenda, at least five working days prior to the meeting.

3.6 Submission of additional documents or requests for additional attendees will be at the discretion of the Chair of the panel.

3.7 At the panel hearing:

- The panel will decide on the format of the proceedings and at what point they will hear from the complainant and the Headteacher
- The complainant will have the opportunity to present their complaint.
- The Headteacher will explain the school's position..
- Panel members will have the opportunity to ask questions of the complainant and the Headteacher.
- The Headteacher will be given the opportunity to make a final statement to the panel.
- The complainant will be given the opportunity to make a final statement to the panel.
- The chair will ask the complainant if he or she feels they have had a fair hearing.

The Chair of the Panel has responsibility to ensure that the meeting is properly minuted.

3.8 The Chair of the Panel will explain to the complainant and Headteacher that the Panel will consider its decision and that a written decision will be sent to both parties within 15 working days. The complainant, Headteacher, other members of staff and witnesses will then leave.

3.9 The Panel will then consider the complaint and all the evidence presented and

- Agree a decision on the complaint;
- Decide upon the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint; and
- Where appropriate, suggest recommended changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not recur.

3.10 A written statement clearly setting out the decision of the Panel must be sent to the complainant and Headteacher. The letter to the complainant should also advise how to take the complaint further.

3.11 The school should ensure that a copy of all correspondence and notes are kept on file in the school's records. These records should be kept separately from the pupil's personal records.

Stage 4: The Education Funding Agency

If a complainant wishes to go beyond the governors' complaints panel, they should be advised to contact the Education Funding Agency. More information is available at www.education.gov.uk/schoolcomplaints.
